USPTO refuses to answer my letter
"missing issuance of my patent" from 15.Dec.2005

Dear Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, with letter from 15.Dec.2005 I asked with the following text, why I do not receive my patent:

«with Decision from 17.Aug.2005 the renewed petition to revive my unavoidable abandoned patent application was granted (Senior Petitions Attorney Patricia Faison-Ball), and the last but one sentence of this letter says:

„This matter is being referred to the Publishing Division to be processed into a patent.“

The patent application was successfully examined and allowed for issuance as a patent, all fees are paid and the revival-petition had success.

I do not understand, why I do not receive something like a "Patent Document" (or does the Publishing Division really needs more than ¼ year to mail it ?).»

Meanwhile, since the Decision from 17.Aug.2005 of Senior Petitions Attorney Patricia Faison-Ball one year passed by and since my requesting letter «missing issuance of my patent» from 15.Dec.2005 eight months passed by, and I do not receive my patent or an answer to my letter from 15.Dec.2005.

So please tell me, why I do not receive my patent (though the Decision from 17.Aug.2005 told one year ago, that it'd be processed into a patent) and why nobody answers my letter from 15.Dec.2005.

With friendly greetings

Gerd Krämer
